MEMORANDUM FOR: Mr. Stanley J. Grogan
Assistant to the Director

THROUGH: Deputy Director/Intelligence

SUBJECT: Draft Speech by Dr. Gabriel Hauge

25X1A 1. Late in November 1957, Dr. Gabriel Hauge, Economic Advisor to the President, called the Director to request assistance in the preparation of a speech on the Soviet economy to be delivered in April before the Boston Economics Club. [REDACTED] was designated to provide such help.

25X1A 2. [REDACTED] has been working with Phillip Areeda, assistant to Dr. Hauge, and has provided considerable assistance and has made a number of suggestions in reviewing earlier drafts. The suggestions pencilled in the attached copy of the latest draft have already been given to Mr. Areeda.

3. Our concern has been primarily with the accuracy of the data presented on the size and possible future growth of the Soviet economy. The estimates on the implications for the Soviet Union and for the US are the personal thoughts of Messrs. Hauge and Areeda.

4. The attached copy is for your information and file.
